

meet joe scott
who lives with cystic fibrosis

Eleven-year-old Joe from Mosgiel was diagnosed at birth with the lung disease Cystic Fibrosis. He has IV Antibiotic treatments three times a year and attends clinics every two months. Joe has to have daily physio and take daily enzymes along with other medication to help digest his food

He lives with his mother Sharon, brother Brian 7 who also has Cystic Fibrosis, a pet dog Sky and cat Tippie.

Joe's interests include Playstation, computer, models and swimming

Joe Scott
June 2009

www.curekids.org.nz